Exhibition dates: September 11th - October 16th

LOCATION:

Athens Cultural Center 24 Second Street, Athens

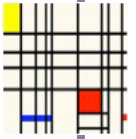

RESERVATIONS: To reserve a spot, send an email to classes@athensculturalcenter.org and include the following information: student name and age, parent or guardian name, address, and phone number, and specify if all 6 weeks or specific weeks are being requested.

RESERVATIONS ARE ACCEPTED ON A FIRST-COME, FIRST-SERVED BASIS.

Week One, July 5th - 7th:

ABSTRACT LINE AND SHAPE DESIGN!

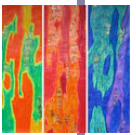

We will be exploring traveling lines and create both an organic and geometric abstract masterpiece. We'll look at artist Piet Mondrian and create a final piece that combines both!

Week Two, July 12th - 14th:

FROTTAGE, ART RUBBINGS

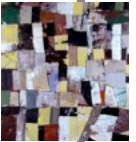

We will go on a walking field trip to try out rubbing techniques with different materials. Then we will create our own plates to make our own rubbings from, and even print them!

Week Three, July 19th - 21st:

STACKING PAINTINGS

We will return to our abstract exploration and create miniature abstract works of art that are stacked on a larger painting as well as one mini canvas using paint and wood!

Week Four, July 26th - 28th:

3-D LIZARDS, BEETLES, AND FISH

We will create a variety of 3-d Creatures that crawl, fly on hidden wings, and float in an ocean window!

Week Five, August 2nd - 4th:

THE ADVENTURES OF...

We will create our own original Cartoon Character and create a book that will also be its home. Inside will be our own story with illustrations!

Week Six, August 9th - 11th: MEDIA MADNESS

You'll create your own projects in this free exploration week using the materials we have used previously. Try out something new, go back to something familiar and try it again! (students must have already attended two weeks of sessions to attend).

SPECIAL SESSION, Friday, August 12th, 10:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Learn how to display your work for exhibition in the student art show.
